Williamstown Junction Station

Dahlialand, N.J.

Jan. 23, 1933.

E.C. Auchter,
Principal Horticulturist in Charge,
U.S. Dept. of Agri.
Bureau of Plant Industry,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your favor of 14th instant, we are sending you under separate cover copy of our descriptive catalogue for 1932. You will notice we made an advance introduction in plants only of our two 1933 introductions:- Ray Warner and Edith Eastburn Simon. This was to enable us to use our 1932 catalogue for 1933.

We are enclosing list of 1933 prices, from which we offer you the following discounts:- 20% on all orders under $12.00, 25% on all orders for $12.00 or more.

In addition, for the double purpose of introducing our fine new varieties, and to keep us busy through the winter months so as to avoid the Spring rush, we offer free, a root of either King Midas or Frazier with all orders of $5.00 and under $12.00; and, a plant of either Ray Warner or Edith Eastburn Simon on all orders of $12.00 or more received before March 1st.

These orders are reserved as soon as received, and shipped as early as weather permits in the Spring, unless they are desired to be sent at once, or at some particular later date.

Assuring you of prompt and careful attention to all orders and communications, with our guarantee of entire satisfaction, we are,

Very truly yours,

PEACOCK DAHLIA FARMS.
